Bible Study

It is being universally conceded by college men everywhere that a liberal education is not complete until one has a fair knowledge of the Bible. The College Y. M. C. A. has been putting forth vigorous efforts to enlist all men in college in Bible study. Last year a large number were enrolled, resulting in great good. It is the earnest desire to enlist more men this year.

The classes meet in small groups led by a student. The meetings are informal in character, held weekly when and where each group may decide. The group leaders are coached by a member of the Faculty in a Normal Class. It will not take much of your time to be a member of one of these classes, and it is worth as much or more than any hour of college work you might take.

Mission Study

The student body is canvassed at the beginning of the college year for the purpose of enlisting all students in the study of Missions. Both Home and Foreign Missions are studied. Such books as "The Decisive Hour in Christian Missions"; "The New Awakening in China"; "Sketches in Brazil"; "Negro Life in the South"; and the "Home Mission Task" are taught in small group classes by student leaders. Each week these leaders meet in a Normal Class taught by a member of the Faculty. The bands meet weekly at a time when it does not conflict with other college work. By joining one of these bands and taking such courses as are offered the student will gain a clear knowledge of the great Mission problems; he will become more interested in missions and will with pleasure remember those who were associated with him in these group meetings.

Blue Ridge Summer Conference

Each summer, in June, the young men of the South, representing the various colleges and universities of the many States, gather near Black Mountain at the Blue Ridge Association grounds for the purpose of discussing life's problems, college problems, and finding out how they can best serve their day and generation and where they can serve.

No one can tell the power and influence of these conferences until he has attended. The whole conference is filled with a spirit quite Christlike. The five hundred men who gather there each year believe wholly in the well rounded life—the Body, Mind and Spirit.

Student Volunteer Band

The Student Volunteer Band is composed of men who are planning to give their life to the Master on the Foreign field. For a number of years now there has been at Wake Forest a goodly number to belong to this organization.

The purpose of the Band is to keep the spirit of missions burning in the hearts and lives of the men, and make them do and give their best to the great cause.

All men who expect to work on the foreign field are welcomed into the Band.

The Information Bureau

The Y. M. C. A. has established a Bureau of Information for the benefit of incoming students. If you desire information about the arrangement of your work, the securing of a room or boarding place, call on the Y. M. C. A. Secretary. He will advise you.

Religious Exercises

Daily prayers are held in the chapel every day except on Sunday. Attendance upon Daily Prayers and upon Sunday morning service is required.

Sunday School is held in the chapel every Sunday at 9:30 o'clock a. m.

Services are held in the Memorial Hall every Sunday Morning and evening by the College Chaplain, Rev. Walter N. Johnson.

An address is delivered before the Missionary Society on the first Sunday evening of each month.

The Young Men's Christian Association meets on Monday evenings immediately after supper in Leigh Hall.

Prayer Meeting is held in the little chapel every Wednesday evening.

The Student Senate

This is the student court for the trial and settlement of all cases of hazing on the part of upper classmen, and "fresh" or obnoxious conduct by the Freshmen. This body of students, elected the first of the year by the entire student body are charged with two duties: to protect the Freshmen from hazing, and at the same time to see that the "Newish" treat the upper classmen with proper respect. For a violation of either offense—hazing or "freshness" all students found guilty will be expelled.

The members of the present Senate are:

H. B. CONRAD, Chairman

O. W. SAWYER	L. C. WILLIAMS
J. G. STANLEY	E. A. DANIEL
E. P. STILLWELL	D. E. JOSEY
O. L. STRINGFIELD	GEORGE PENNELL

The Senate has formulated the following rules for the conduct of Freshmen, and it is urged that all Freshmen observe them, to avoid trouble:

1. In all cases touch your hats to Professors and Instructors, and salute all graduates and men of higher classes, who salute or speak to you.

2. Go promptly to all college meetings and games.

3. Never make yourself conspicuous by shouting out of the windows of the college buildings, or on the campus.

4. Observe all rules in regard to the wearing of Freshmen caps, and on all occasions appear in modest haberdashery.

5. All displays of pipes, canes or cigars, are positively forbidden.

6. Mix not in the conversation of your superiors.

7. The wearing of "Prep." school insignias, pins or medals is positively forbidden.

8. Always allow a man of higher class to precede you through a door.

9. Learn all yells and "Old Gold and Black"
AT ONCE.

10. Stay away from drug stores, station and post office after 7:00 p. m.

11. Don't forget the fact that you are a "Newish"

The Honor System

On all regular examinations and quizzes the students of Wake Forest College are placed on their honor. The College insists on appealing to what is best in her students, and experience has shown the wisdom of this system. Every man is expected to be true to the trust the College and the student body places in him, and in no way to violate a principle of honor.

The Honor Committee consists of the presidents of the various classes and organizations of the College. This Committee is an organization of the students for their own protection. It seeks to preserve the integrity of the Honor System at Wake Forest. It aims to secure to any student under suspicion of dishonesty in examination his full due, and to vindicate his name if he is innocent; to protect the honor and the standing of the remainder of the students by his expulsion if guilty.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

The Philomathesian and Euzelian Literary Societies rank first in college life at Wake Forest. Wherever their representatives have gone Wake Forest has become the synonym of impromptu eloquence and polished style. Our halls easily take first rank in arrangement, beauty and equipment among Southern colleges.

Not a few of Wake Forest's distinguished Alumni attribute their success to the training received in her Societies. Friday and Saturday nights for debate, declamations, and orations, and Saturday morning for the transaction of business, furnish fine facilities for training in debate, oratory, and parliamentary usage.

The two societies are so nearly equal that neither can successfully claim superiority over the other. An educated man is fortunate to have been an active member of either.

The Library and Reading Room are the constant companions of these ambitious workers. With rare exception, the men who come to college avail themselves of these excellent advantages with an enthusiasm that is sure to bring success. In them the college men develop those faculties that cannot be developed in the recitation room. Men are trained to think upon their feet and feel at home before an audience.

The Societies inspire a vigorous and manly spirit in college life, while they exert a wholesome influence for morals and discipline. Faithful work in either constitutes the better half of your college course, while an equal amount of work is nowhere else so richly rewarded.

Each of these Societies awards medals to members for improvement, and to those evincing excellent individual work in oratory and debate.

Debate Council

The debating and other forensic interests of the College are vested in a Council. The members of this body are composed of three student members from each of the two societies. This Council has supervisory charge over all the intercollegiate forensic events of the College.

Debates

There are two annual public debates held each year by teams elected by the Philomathesian and Euzelian Societies. The Junior-Sophomore debate is held in the fall and the Anniversary debate in the spring. The speakers for the Junior-Sophomore debate for the year 1913-'14 are: A. L. Carlton, Carey J. Hunter, members of the Philomathesian Society; and J. M. Gatling, J. B. Edwards, members of the Euzellian Society. The speakers for the Anniversary debate are: A. O. Dickens, R. H. Taylor, members of the Philomathesian Society; and W. W. Walker, J. C. McCourry, members of the Euzelian Society.

Two Intercollegiate Debates will be held on Easter Monday. Representatives are selected by a committee from the Faculty out of contestants from each Society. Intercollegiate Debates are open to all active members of the Literary Societies. The two debates arranged for this year are with Baylor University of Texas, to be held at Atlanta, Ga.; and Davidson College, to be held at Winston-Salem. It is the last of the series with Baylor University—Baylor having won the decision in the first debate and Wake Forest in the second debate, Wake Forest being represented last year by Royland S. Pruette (Eu.), and J. C. Brown, (Phi.), with J. M. Pritchard (Eu.), as alternate. This year's debate makes the second of the series with Davidson College. Wake Forest lost the debate last year, being represented by Sam Long (Eu.), and W. R. Chambers (Phi.), with E. P. Yates as alternate.

Oratory

The two Societies each elect one of its members annually to deliver orations at the Anniversary Celebration. This will be February 13th. The orators for the year are: Geo. Pennell (Eu.), and D. M. Johnson (Phi.).

Each Society also each year elects six men from the Senior Class to render orations, three from each Society speaking in the fall, October 10th, and three from each Society speaking in the spring, March 6th. The Senior speakers elected for the fall are: from the Philomathesian Society W. R. Chambers, G. L. Jarvis, and O. W. Yates; from the Euzelian Society, J. N. Wallin, B. O. Myers, and J. J. Neal.

The Societies also send a representative to the State Peace Oratorical Contest each spring. This is a preliminary contest between representatives from North Carolina Colleges for the purpose of selecting a State representative to the National Peace Contest. A handsome prize is offered to the successful contestant in the National Oratorical Peace Contest.

ATHLETICS

In all probability the outlook for Athletics at Wake Forest has never been so bright. The Athletic spirit along with eagerness for victory in debates is in the very air we breathe.

Athletics at Wake Forest is under the control of the Alumni Athletic Association, which works in harmony with the Student Athletic Association. The Alumni Association employs Coaches and a General Secretary, arranges for Intercollegiate contests, and has general control over all Athletics. The Faculty, through its Athletic Committee exercises general and supervisory control over these two associations.

On being refused an Athletic Matriculation fee by the Board of Trustees (until the Board could more thoroughly investigate) the student body through the two Societies placed an Athletic fee of five dollars on all members, this fund to be turned over to the Alumni Association and in return each member to receive a season ticket to all Athletic contests. It is earnestly hoped by an almost unanimous student body that the Board of Trustees will see fit to give us an Athletic Matriculation fee.

For the coming season, the Association have engaged the following coaches:

Football and baseball—MR. FRANK M. THOMPSON.

Basketball and Track—MR. J. RICHARD CROZIER.

FOOTBALL

Football has only been restored to Wake Forest's catalogue of sports for a few seasons, and as yet we haven't made such a brilliant showing, but nowhere in the South can be found a team which will fight harder than our boys, for in Frank Thompson, we have in all probability the best coach in the South Atlantic States. The first season he was with us, he took a team of untried players, and at the close of the season, three of them were picked as members of the "All State" team and he himself was chosen unanimously by the committee of newspaper men, as the Premier Coach in the State.

TRACK

Wake Forest, like most of the other colleges in this State does not give proper support to this branch of Athletics, but Wake Forest "more than holds her own." This last season under Capt. Tyner's training the team won third place in the State meet in Raleigh, defeated Trinity by an overwhelming score, and broke even with A. & M. in two meets.

BASKETBALL

This is one of the most exciting sports there is and has always been well supported at Wake Forest. The games are played in the Gymnasium, and the band and the rooters fairly raise the roof with their din. As a coach of basketball Mr. Crozier needs no introduction, for wherever he goes with his team they are dubbed, in the words of the Atlanta Journal as "Dick Crozier's electric machine from Wake Forest," and they well deserve the title, for ever since this sport was established here by Mr. Crozier whether on the road or at home "Old Gold and Black" has ever waved high at the close of the game. In the last six years of basketball at Wake Forest, the home team has only lost four games on the home court.

BASEBALL

Here is where Wake Forest's light has always shone. With a Coach, who hasn't an equal South of the "Mason and Dixon" line, Wake Forest has for the last two seasons been a formidable contender for the State and South Atlantic championships and last season another star was added to "Tommie" Thompson and his crew's athletic crown when, by decisively beating everything in the State, and on the Southern trip, every sporting writer in the State conceded the undisputed championship of the "Old North State," while The Technique, the official organ of the Athletic Association of the Georgia School of Technology, awarded to Wake Forest the championship of the South. Never before has college spirit been so high, as during this momentous season. We give the schedule and the scores.

MASS MEETINGS

Mass meetings are held in the Chapel before all the big games. The band is always there and the students practice the college songs and yells. A chief rooter and his assistants are usually elected at the first mass meeting of the year.

COLLEGE SONGS

HERE'S TO WAKE FOREST

Oh! here's to Wake Forest, a glass of the finest,
Red, ruddy Rhenish filled up to the brim.
Her sons they are many, her daughters a plenty,
With hearts o'erflowing we will sing her hymn.

Chorus :

Rah, rah, rah, Wake Forest, rah!
Old Alma Mater's sons we are!
We'll herald her story and die for her glory.
Old Gold and Black is ever waving high.

As Fresh we adore her, as Sophs we explore her,
And carve our names upon her ancient walls;
As Juniors patrol her, and Seniors extol her;
And weep to leave fore'er her sacred halls,

Chorus : Rah, etc.

Though fortune forsake us, and fate o'ertake us,
We'll ne'er forget our dear old college days,
And o'er memory's treasure we'll drink without measure,
And sing fore'er our Alma Mater's praise.

Chorus : Rah, etc.

ALMA MATER

TUNE : "Maryland, My Maryland."

O Alma Mater, 'tis thy name
That lights our path to glory;
We'll ever spread thy matchless fame
In word and song and story.
So sound her name through all the land,
Let triumphs ring on every hand,
Let praises all our hearts command,
Hail, hail to thee, Wake Forest!

And with true hearts we greet the hour
That calls us to our duty;
We trust our Alma Mater's power
To round our lives with beauty.
And all the while our hearts are free,
Our souls are full of jollity,
And singing in their joy and glee,
Hail, hail to thee, Wake Forest!

Her sturdy sons from far and near
Look back to Alma Mater:
With many a prayer, but ne'er a fear,
They bless their Alma Mater;
And as they rise from height to height
And stand as victors in the fight,
They sing the mother of their might:
Hail, hail to thee, Wake Forest!

COLLEGE YELLS

Every man in college can not make the Varsity, but everyone can root.

I.

Wake em up—Wake em up,
Wake, Wake, Wake!
Shake em up—Shake em up,
Shake, shake shake!
Wide a Wake—Wide a Wake,
Wake, Wake, Wake!
Wake Forest!

II.

Chicker er ga runk,
Er Runk er ree.
Chick er ga runk,
Er runk er ree.
Hi! Ho! Hee!
W. F. C., W. F. C.,
Team! Team! Team!

III.

Ray, ray, rah, rah!
Thompson! Coach! Thompson!

IV.

Rah, rah, rah, rah, rah!
Rah, rah, rah, rah, rah!
Rah, rah, rah, rah, rah!
Crozier! Coach! Crozier!

V.

Whistle—Boom—Yah!

VI.

W-A-K-E F-O-R-E-S-T—

That's the way we spell it!
That's the way we spell it!
Here's the way we yell it!
Here's the way we yell it!

Wake Forest! Wake Forest! Wake Forest!

VII.

One—two—three—four,
Two—four—three—four,
Who in the —— are we for
Wake Forest, Wake Forest, Wake Forest!

VIII.

Ama Veva! Ama Veva!
Ama Veva! Viva Vum!
Ama Veva! Ama Veva!
Ama Veva! Viva Vum!
——the best! ——the best!
All the rest are on the bum.

IX.

Who can, can, can?
We can, can, can;
Wake Forest can, can Beat———!

X.

Cool and steady—
Always ready—
——, ——, ——!
